Project No. 080311

Sale Date - 5/7/2008

Question Submitted: 4/23/2008

Question Number: 1

1.Are there boring logs to help determine the elevation of the rock? If not, can you please provide an estimated amount of rock removal for the footer of the proposed retaining wall?

Question Submitted: 4/24/2008

Question Number: 2

There are not any borings included with contract documents. Contract drawing 3/25 indicates that there is subsurface information available for this project. Please provide this information.

Question Submitted: 4/28/2008

Question Number: 3

Does the state have a temporary right of way agreement with the property located to the South of the proposed retaining wall? The Excavation/Embankment Diagram on sheet 19/25 depicts a 1:1 layback on the South side of the wall. Using the cross section sheets 11-15, the layback will exceed the right of way line using a 1:1 slope. Will the state provide the temporary right of way agreement?

Question Number: 4

The plans require that the retaining wall footing to be placed in bedrock. Borings have been provided to indicate the presence of bedrock. However, the proposal does provide an item for Item 503 Rock Excavation. Please review and provide an item for this work.

Question Number: 5

The plans require that the retaining wall footing to be placed in bedrock. Borings have been provided to indicate the presence of bedrock. However, the proposal does provide an item for Item 503 Rock Excavation. Please review and provide an item for this work.

All prospective bidders, subcontractors, suppliers, materialmen and all others who have an interest in these prebid questions and answers are advised that these items are being provided for informational purposes only and are not part of the bidding documents. If a question warrants a clarification, the Department will issue an addenda addressing the request for clarification to all plan holders. If the Department believes that the bidding documents adequately address the request, the contractor will be advised accordingly.
