

Transportation Engineer

The purpose of the transportation engineer occupation is to provide professional engineering services in areas of roadway construction, planning, design, maintenance or testing.

At levels one and two, employees specialize in roadway construction, planning, design, maintenance or testing functions, with assignments increasing in the degree of complexity & independence as employees move through the series. At level three and four, employees act as first, second or third line supervisor or staff specialists. At level five, employees serve as administrator for an Office in Central Office or as a staff specialist who provides engineering advice to Director, Assistance Director or Deputy Director.

Pay Rate:

Transportation Engineer 1, Pay Range 32, Step 1, $21.77 per hour.

Transportation Engineer 2, Pay Range 33, Step 1, $23.87 per hour.

Transportation Engineer 3, Pay Range 14, Step 1, $27.93 per hour.

Transportation Engineer 4, Pay Range 15, Step 1, $30.68 per hour.

Transportation Engineer 5, Pay Range 16, Step 1, $33.83 per hour.

Who is eligible?

This classification is reserved for those who

- have an engineering degree.
- hold a valid certificate as Engineer-In-Training or licensure as registered professional engineer by Ohio State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.
- have engineering related experience.

What are the benefits of being a Transportation Engineer at ODOT?

ODOT's staff of talented engineers maintain a wealth of practical knowledge and hands-on experience in the transportation engineering field. Therefore, it is more important than ever to prepare lower level engineers and provide the knowledge it will take to fill the future vacancies that will develop due to engineer retirements within the next five to ten years.

Benefit Package: The State of Ohio provides quality, affordable, and competitive benefits to permanent employees. Benefits may include medical, dental and vision coverage as well as life insurance and much more.

Professional Enhancement: ODOT encourages its employees to engage in training classes designed to enhance professional skills and careers.

Location: ODOT has opportunities in every district throughout the state.

Flexible Hours: Many employees have flexible schedule options.