Five routes have national distinction as being America’s Byways.

ACB Amish Country Byway
Experience the cultural lifestyle of the Amish and northern Appalachian people as you travel along the charming country roads. Enjoy simple living amidst the rolling hills, farmlands and pastoral countryside.

BOP Big Darby Plains Scenic Byway
Explore more than 40 miles of spectacular views, along the route discover covered bridges, suspected Underground Railroad sites, nature preserves, century farms, cemeteries and historic homes.

DTB Drovers’ Trail Scenic Byway
Rodeo by century cattle drives that linked farmers to markets and facilitated commerce among travelers, this 37-mile byway connects the historic National Road and the Ohio River Scenic Byway.

GAC Gateway to Amish Country
In your path to explore scenic Knox County, enjoy Amish culture and goods. Take rail trails, visiting a 270-foot long covered bridge, kayaking water trails, and relaxing at a waterfall park.

GSB Granville Scenic Byway
Granville Scenic Byway attractions include rolling hills, scenic farms, ancient burial grounds, pleasant residential districts and Denison University.

HCB Heritage Corridors byway
Nestled in an urbanized area, roadsides connect 19th-century hamlets in a rolling, nature-based setting with historic sites and structures and a later early settlement and National Park.

HNR Historic National Road - Ohio
Completed in Ohio in the 1830s, this 11th-century, 225-mile national byway is lined with “pike towns” that grew up around stopping points for foot- and horse-powered traffic.

HHP Hocking Hills Scenic Byway
The park and gradually formed nature area, named for the bottle-shaped Hocking River Valley, have deep gorges and caves that were inhabited 7,000 years ago by the Wyandot, Delawares and Shawnee tribes.

JAH Johnny Appleseed Historic Byway
Explore over 30 miles of byway celebrating the life of John “Appleseed” Chapman, legendary orchardist and nurseryman. Historic sites along this byway include Chapman’s original homesteads and properties, as well as original sites of Native American culture and pioneer settlements.

JTB Jefferson Township Scenic Byway
Jefferson Township Scenic Byway represents an oasis of rural and natural character amid sprawling subdivisions. The roads that make up the Jefferson Township Scenic Byway offer breathtaking scenic vistas of older barns and homes, streams, sloping stands of trees and several community parks.

JLC Land of the Cropped-Tipped Churches
This 38-mile scenic route is flanked by an array of crock-tipped churches, found on the National Register of Historic Places. In this intense farming region dating back to the early settlements.

LHB Lincoln Highway Historic Byway
Beginning in 1913, Ohio’s portion of America’s first coast-to-coast paved road that connected New York to San Francisco accelerated America’s emerging automobile culture. It recurs the 1900s decades of travel.

LPP Lower Valley Pike Scenic Byway
The mighty Mad River shadows this byway, which is embraced by limestone cliffs and riparian woodlands and framed by wetlands. The river invites activities such as canoeing, fishing or wildlife observation in all seasons.

MVS Maumee Valley Scenic Byway
The nearly 40-mile route parallels the Maumee River abundant with War of 1812 battle sites on Lake Erie. On land, find historic towns, an interurban Bridge architectural gem and regional glass factories.

MEC Miami & Erie Canal Scenic Byway
Experience the region of prosperous, well-maintained farms and canal communities and the German influence that settled the region. View historic sites including the Lockkeepers House along the Towpath Trail.

MCB Morgan County Scenic Byway
Enjoy southern Ohio’s rural beauty and get lost on rural roads as you explore this scenic route.

NRC North Ridge Scenic Byway
With more than 100 historic homes dating back to the 1830s, this byway follows the northernmost ancient beach ridge across Avon and Sheffield.

OEC Ohio & Erie Canalway
Tour the National Heritage Area and experience the rails, trails, landscapes, towns and cities along the first 110 miles of the canal that helped Ohio and our nation grow.

ORB Ohio River Scenic Byway
Play hide and seek with the Ohio River as it flows and curves through 11 counties. River towns, once transported slaves on route to freedom as part of the Underground Railroad.

OTC Ohio-Tennessee Trail Scenic Byway
This 38-mile route follows the historic Ohio-Tennessee Trail leading westward from the Ohio River to the Tennessee River.

WBR Welsh Scenic Byway
Nearly two centuries ago, Welsh immigrants established communities centered around chapels in southeastern Ohio and later built charcoal furnaces. Today, the byway showcases the region’s restored churches, cemeteries and the Bob Evans Farm.