ODOT, with the City of Cleveland, is working on the Opportunity Corridor Project to look at options for improving the roads to support planned growth in the area.

Four meetings will be held at the places and times listed above. Each meeting will have:

- A presentation (beginning 30 minutes after the start of each meeting)
- A large-group question and answer session
- Time to look at project maps
- A chance to talk to the study team one-on-one
- A chance to submit comments (written or spoken)

Each meeting will cover these items:

- Engineering and environmental studies
- Summary of community feedback
- The Recommended Preferred Alternative
- Next Steps
